

Lawyers Workstation Conference 2008

Sat 29 March 08 | The Deloitte Conference Facility, Sydney

"By the end of 2007, we will be talking about a clear and growing digital divide between technology-forward and technology-backward lawyers ... "

Dennis Kennedy's Seven Legal Technology Trends for 2007

A day of exchanging tips and ideas on software, hardware and systems for better lawyers. Hear from colleagues and innovators about interesting tools to augment your personal legal skills. Things that you can use, regardless of your existing systems. After all, everyones practice is different, and evolving.

James Province

John Zeleznikow

Robert Garvey

Simon Lewis

Kate Greenwood

Jim Severino

Who should attend:

- Lawyers
 - inhouse wanting more from their budgets;
 - looking to improve the way things are done;
 - who want to get off the time-billing treadmill;
 - who provide practice support.
- Managing Partners
- Knowledge Managers
- Precedent Managers
- Librarians
- IT Staff & Consultants

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- find out what is coming so you can take advantage of breakthroughs in personal practice tools and techniques,
- be shown the very latest in lawyer enhancing tools from around the world,
- understand Web 2.0 economics -- invest in your future,
- know how best to profit from new approaches to law,
- hear about trends in dealing with Apple, Open Source and Microsoft, including Office 2007 and Vista,
- play with new tools for increasing your effectiveness as a lawyer, and learn from those who have been using them,
- earn up to 6 MCLE units

From the 2006 Conference:

"... had a dozen folks tell me how valuable they found the whole thing."

Greg Bray

Join colleagues who get IT

Supported by:

New South Wales Society For Computers and the Law

REGISTER TODAY tel 02-97184076 more info: www.sinch.com.au